J. Robinson Surveyor

The State of Ohio
Colmer County
Personally appeared before me the subscriber Elisha Lett Shaker who acknowledged the above plat to be his voluntary deed and act for the special purpose of a town to be designated by the name of Nashville. The lots streets & alleys to be and remain of the size with the course as above marked and devised the same to be admitted to record as such also Mary his wife who being examined separate and apart from her said husband and the contents of the above plat being made fully known to her acknowledged the same in all respects as before designated for the special purpose before mentioned and that the same she recorded and hereunto subscribed her name without the threats or coercion of her husband and desires the same to be admitted to record as such
